2/ Application: the author(s)

1/ Name of the author(s)

2/ Please ask the author to describe their work and what they stand for in a few lines

If needed, the author can write these few lines in their own language and you can translate it using an online service, for instance: <https://www.deepl.com/>

3/ Biography of the author

| including a list of already published plays

3/ Application: the play

In this section, we ask for details about the play you are applying with: its main themes and characters, its structure, the process of its development... This will be of central importance for the Drama Committee to judge the relevance of the play for European audiences. We warmly recommend preparing this section in collaboration with the author(s).

1/ Title of the Play

2/ Plot Summary

| in English, including presentation of the main characters, max. 3000 characters (incl. spaces)

3/ Development, origin and structure of the play

| In a few lines, ideally written by the author themselves. In English, max. 2000 characters (incl. spaces)

4/ Explain the relevance of the play for European audiences

| Including main topics of the play, max. 3000 characters (incl. spaces)

5/ English translation of an extract of the play

| Please upload an English translation of an extract of the play you are applying with (about 2 pages - for instance the two first pages)

If available, please upload here the full text of the play in its original language:
